2008 Bass Fishing Guild 150 Team Tournament Entry Form

Release of Liability

Before our tournaments, after our tournaments, and during our tournaments bad things can happen to you whether you are participating in our tournaments or not. These bad things include but are not limited to death, disability, injury, loss of or damage to property and mental health, and financial loss. Warning, fishing can be especially dangerous and costly. We at the Bass Fishing Guild are not all knowing or all powerful and therefore cannot predict or prevent bad things from happening to you or anyone else. As a result, by doing anything including participating in our tournaments you put yourself at extreme risk and the Bass Fishing Guild cannot protect you from yourself or others. By signing this form you agree that only you can be held responsible for the consequences of your decision to place yourself at risk regardless of who is at fault. You on behalf of yourself and your family, heirs, friends, colleagues, associates, neighbors, church members, and anyone else not mentioned living or dead agree that only you can be held responsible for the consequences of your decision to place yourself at risk and you release the Bass Fishing Guild and its associates from all legal liability associated with any decision you make or the consequences of any decision you make.
